

CCC (Central Connection Conferences) and SAC (Student Achievement Conferences) Review
June 2016

Name:

Dear parents and whānau:

In 2016 Central School is trialling a new reporting system. Our goal is to connect better with families and to work with them to develop learning goals for their children. We expect children to confidently share their learning in this process. Could you please take the time to mark on the continuum where you sit and answer these questions to give us some feedback on your thoughts on the process and what you got out of the conferences and report.

1. I found the report format informative and easy to understand.

Strongly Agree 1

10 Strongly Disagree

Please comment:

2. I found the interview informative and feel that my child can share their learning.

Strongly Agree 1

10 Strongly Disagree

Please comment:

3. I am now clear about my child's learning goals.

Strongly Agree 1

10 Strongly Disagree

Please comment:

4. In February, we introduced Central Connection Conferences to ensure that families had an opportunity to share their knowledge of the child and the things that mattered for the family. It was intended as a key in building relationships successful learning in the year.

I found the Central Connection Conference valuable.

Strongly Agree 1

10 Strongly Disagree

Please comment: