NAG 3 – PROTECTED DISCLOSURES POLICY

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide information and guidance to employees of the school in reporting serious wrongdoing within the school in accordance with the Protected Disclosures Act 2000.

POLICY

WHAT IS A PROTECTED DISCLOSURE

A protected disclosure is a declaration made by an employee where they believe serious wrongdoing has occurred and they believe on reasonable grounds that the information is true or likely to be true. Employees are obliged to disclose serious wrongdoing in accordance with this Policy. Employees making disclosures will be protected against retaliatory or disciplinary action in respect of the actual disclosure of information and will not be liable for civil or criminal proceedings by reason of having made or referred that disclosure of information.

DEFINITIONS OF A SERIOUS WRONGDOING

Serious wrongdoing includes any serious wrongdoing of any of the following type:

1. An unlawful, corrupt, or irregular use of funds or resources;
2. An act or omission or course of conduct that constitutes a serious risk to public health or public safety or the environment;

3. An act, omission or course of conduct that constitutes a serious risk to the maintenance of law, including the prevention, investigation, and detection of offences and the right to fair trial;
4. An act, omission or course of conduct that constitutes an offence;
5. An act or omission or course of conduct by a public official that is oppressive, improperly discriminatory, or grossly negligent or that constitutes gross mismanagement.

CONDITIONS FOR DISCLOSURE

Before making a disclosure the employee should be sure the following conditions are met:

1. The information is about serious wrongdoing in or by the school;
2. The employee believes on reasonable grounds the information to be true or is likely to be true;
3. The employee wishes the wrongdoing to be investigated;
4. The employee wishes the disclosure to be protected.

WHO CAN MAKE A DISCLOSURE

Any employee of the school can make a disclosure. For the purposes of this policy an employee includes:

1. Current employees and principal;
2. Former employees and principals;
3. Contractors supplying services to the school.

PROTECTION OF EMPLOYEES MAKING DISCLOSURES

An employee who makes a disclosure and who has acted in accordance with the procedure outlined in this policy:

1. May bring a personal grievance in respect of retaliatory action from their Employers

Signed:	Date: May 2017
Name:	Review Cycle Two Years:
BOT Position:	Next Review Date: May 2019
Stored: Central school Office	Page 2 of 5

2. May access the anti-discrimination provisions of the Human Rights Act 1993 in respect of retaliatory action from their employers
3. Are not liable for any civil or criminal proceedings, or to a disciplinary hearing by reason of having made or referred to a disclosure
4. Will, subject to point 5. of the Guidelines, have their disclosure treated with the utmost confidentiality

The protections above (1. to 4.) will not be available to employees making allegations they know to be false or where they have acted in bad faith.

GUIDELINES

Any employee of Central School who wishes to make a protected disclosure should do so using the following procedure.

1. How to submit a disclosure

The employee should submit the disclosure in writing. The document should be signed and dated.

2. Information to be contained

The disclosure should contain detailed information including the following:

- the nature of the serious wrongdoing;
- the name or names of the people involved;
- surrounding facts including details relating to the time and/or place of the wrongdoing if known or relevant

3. Where to send disclosures

- (a) A disclosure must be sent in writing to the Principal who has been nominated by the Board of Trustees under the provision of Section 11 of the Protected Disclosures Act 2000 for this purpose.
- (b) If you believe that the Principal is involved in the wrongdoing or has an association with the person committing the wrongdoing that would make it inappropriate to disclose to them, or you think it would for other reasons be inappropriate to disclose to the Principal, then you can make the disclosure to the Chairperson of the Board.

4. Decision to investigate

On receipt of a disclosure, the Principal or other protected disclosures recipient (PDR) must within 20 working days examine seriously the allegations of wrongdoing made and decide whether a full investigation is warranted. If warranted, a full investigation will be undertaken by the PDR or arranged by him/her as quickly as practically possible, through an appropriate authority.

5. Protection of disclosing employee's name

All disclosures will be treated with the utmost confidence. When undertaking an investigation, and when writing the report, the PDR will make every endeavour possible not to reveal information that can identify the disclosing person, unless the person consents in writing or if the person receiving the protected disclosure reasonably believes that disclosure of identifying information is essential:

- to ensure an effective investigation
- to prevent serious risk to public health or the environment
- to have regard to the principles of natural justice

6. Report of investigation

At the conclusion of the investigation the PDR will prepare a report of the investigation with recommendations for action if appropriate, which will be sent to the Chairperson of the Board.

7. Disclosure to an appropriate authority in certain circumstances

(a) A disclosure may be made directly to an appropriate authority (including those listed below) if the employee making the disclosure has reasonable grounds to believe:

- the last resort person in the school (the Chair of the Board) responsible for handling the complaint is or may be involved in the wrongdoing
- immediate reference to another authority is justified by urgency or exceptional circumstances
- there has been no action or recommended action within 20 working days of the date of disclosure.

(b) Appropriate Authorities include (but are not limited to):

- Commissioner of Police

- Controller and Auditor General
- Director of the Serious Fraud Office
- Inspector General of Intelligence and Security
- Ombudsman
- Parliamentary Commissioner for the Environment
- Police Complaints Authority
- Solicitor General
- State Services Commissioner
- Health and Disability Commissioner
- The head of every public sector organisation.

8. Disclosure to Ministers and Ombudsman

A disclosure may be made to a Minister or an Ombudsman if the employee making the disclosure:

- has made the same disclosure according to the internal procedures and clauses of this policy; and
- reasonably believes that the person or authority to whom the disclosure was made:
  - has decided not to investigate
  - has decided to investigate but not made progress with the investigation within reasonable time
  - has investigated but has not taken or recommended any action
  - continues to believe on reasonable grounds that the information disclosed is true or is likely to be true.
